

REGIONAL WATER DISCUSSION TIMELINE

1997

Regional water study authorized

1999

Toledo Regional Water Approach Study performed by Finkbeiner, Pettis & Strout

2000

Toledo Metropolitan Area Council of Governments (TMACOG) Regional Water Study Updated

2010

July Current effort begins with a meeting of the TMACOG Regional Water Technical Committee
Oct. TMACOG explores 6119 options

2012

May TMACOG Regional Water Study Update Technical Report released
July Fulton County Water Supply and Demand Analysis performed by American Structurepoint, referencing the creation of a 6119 District

2015

March TMACOG releases Request For Proposal for regional water study

2016

June TMACOG rate study performed by Poggemeyer Design Group
July City of Sylvania Water Supply System Study performed by Fishbeck, Thompson, Carr & Huber, Inc.
Aug. Wood County Economic Development Commission Water Source Evaluation Study performed by Poggemeyer Design Group

2017

Jan. Toledo City Council members unanimously voted “yes” to a resolution supporting ongoing talks about a regional water authority
Feb. TMACOG Water Quality Council presentation on 6119 districts
April Presentation from Eric Rothstein to TMACOG Regional Water Committee
May Eric Rothstein hired by Toledo Regional Chamber of Commerce to facilitate regional discussion
Sept. Toledo Area Water Authority (TAWA) overview at Chamber Focus on Business luncheon

2018

Jan. 31 TAWA Memorandum of Understanding signed
Ongoing Community discussions about benefits of Regional Water System

